NORTH CAROLINA.

Our Intest dispatches last night asserted the strong probability of a Demoeratic victory in North Carolina. Such was the tenor of special dispatches to The District Radical Convention the Tellume.

THERE was not a single untoward event to mar the quietude of yesterday's elections. The shooting affair in the A Scene Equal to that of Babel northwestern portion of the county was occasioned by no question of partisanship or of race features. The people are to be congratulated, since Grant's myrmidons can find no pretext, in incidents tary law or for the overthrow of republican liberty in November 1 Lynch Not a Ravisher - A United and then shot himself—both dead. can liberty in November, in order that the reign of despotism may be perpetuated by Greeley's defeat.

It is surely most gratifying not only that the election was conducted peacefully and quietly; that there was so little reason for complaint because of any unfairment of four land to the vigoral to decline, on account of previous endition of the rickets was solid. RESULT OF YESTERDAY'S ELECTION. reason for complaint because of any unfairness or fraud practiced by individuals; but because the Democratic and Conservative ticket won a victory so splendid that our Radical friends will enter upon any fature contest with not the slightest confidence in their party, its leaders or its platform. Radicalism is practically extinct in this city and county. Negroes were imported, and on the borders of the county head, and as the cityand county. Negroes were imported, and even in this city villainous frauds, we are told, were bere and there practiced by repeaters, but it signifies nothing. Our whole ticket is elected, and organization. Various members assumed the chair, and before each could express this, too, in the midst of summer, when not less than a thousand of Doyle's adherents are laving their heated heads in cooler winds than blow over this city.
